Appeal Instructions

If you are on Financial Aid Suspension and have experienced mitigating circumstances that caused you not to meet the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Standards, you may submit an appeal to have your circumstances reviewed for reinstatement of financial aid. You must also provide the following: (1) clear explanations of why you failed the standards; (2) what has changed about your mitigating circumstances that will allow you to pass the standards; (3) documentation to support your appeal statement; and (4) your Academic Advisor must complete Section 2 of the appeal form. Incomplete appeals will be denied.

Mitigating circumstances are circumstances that occurred that were beyond your control which caused traumatic or undue hardship. Examples of mitigating circumstances and documentation are but not limited to:

- 1. Medical Problems (physical or mental) – Statement from your physician, hospital or professional counselor which indicates the duration of the illness, whether the medical or mental condition is under control and whether you are able to attend school;
- 2. Accident/Injury – The Police Report, statement from physician or hospital to support the date of your accident and/or injury, any medical problem(s) that resulted and whether you are able to attend school;
- 3. Death of Family Member – Loss of a family member must be documented; examples of documentation may include, but not limited to, an obituary, death certificate and/or death announcement;
- 4. Other Mitigating Circumstances – Clearly describe your mitigating circumstances, duration of the problem that you and/or your parents suffered as a result of divorce, separation, domestic violence, homelessness or any other traumatic or undue hardships. Documentation may include, but not limited to, copies of divorce or separation papers, notarized statement(s) with appropriate I.D., police reports, medical reports or letters from professional counselors and documentation indicating circumstances have improved or been resolved.

Appeal Decision

Your appeal decision (approved or denied) will be indicated via banner web; processing time is normally seven to ten business days except during peak seasons. The appeal decision will be based on the strength of your appeal statement, documentation received and your academic record. Filing an appeal does not guarantee Financial Aid reinstatement. You are responsible for any charges incurred during period/s of ineligibility.
