

Office of Advancement, Research and Economic Development

ANNOUNCEMENT

The mission of the Division of Advancement, Research and Economic Development at Grambling State University is to facilitate and encourage financial and other support for the enhancement of the University's capacity to fulfill its mission of teaching, research and service. It was for this reason, that we partnered with KGRM Radio Station and began our efforts to launch the University's Annual Radiothon. When we first launched this initiative, it was our goal to seek financial support in order to provide monetary scholarships making it possible for more young men and women to access the high quality education that Grambling State University is known for around the globe.

Due to the success of the 6th Annual Radiothon, we are pleased to announce that we are now accepting applications for academic scholarship awards in the amount of $1,000 each for students attending Grambling State University.

The recipients of this scholarship will receive $1,000 each for the Spring Semester, 2018.

The following criteria will be adhered to:

- Cumulative 2.5 GPA
- Full-time student; in good standing at GSU
- Open to all majors
- Open only to undergraduate and graduate students. No Ph.D.
- Must submit a 500 word essay addressing your need and why you are deserving of the scholarship

You can submit your application along with an essay by mail or email (incomplete packets will not be considered):
