

CODE
of
STUDENT CONDUCT

GRAMBLING STATE UNIVERSITY
Grambling, Louisiana

2014-2015

I. PURPOSE/OBJECTIVE

The primary mission of the Office of Student Judicial Affairs is to support the larger mission of both the University and the Division of Student Affairs. Student Judicial Affairs seeks to promote student learning, growth and development by increasing student awareness of the University's expectation(s) of behavior and collaboratively working with other departments in an effort to create a safe, secure, and civil environment conducive to learning. Additionally, the area exists to administer a fair student disciplinary process that adheres to prescribed standards.

II. STATEMENT OF POLICIES

The President, as Chief Executive Officer of the University, has the overall responsibility for the implementation of the Code of Student Conduct (Code) and the student disciplinary process and has delegated his overall management to the Vice President for Student Affairs and the Director of Judicial Affairs. The Director of Judicial Affairs is directly responsible for the daily administration of the University's student judicial system. Code Authority is found in Louisiana Revised Statutes, Acts, Concurrent Resolutions, etc. as the following:

Louisiana Revised Statutes—17:10; 17:3101 through 17:3109 (1969); 17:3024 (1969).

Acts—Act No. 68 (1894), Act No. 529 (1968). Concurrent Resolutions No. 293 (1970)
Title 1, OF THE DISTINCTION OF PERSONS, Act 37, Age of Majority (1972).

The Code of Student Conduct creates an expectation of behavior that the University deems acceptable. Its primary purpose is to ensure that students will not be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process. Although every student has rights guaranteed by the U.S. Constitution, these freedoms cannot be enjoyed, exercised, or protected in a community which lacks order and stability. It is, therefore, each student's responsibility to adhere to the conduct and standards prescribed by the University, the Board of Trustees for the University of Louisiana System, as well as those established by local, state and federal laws.

Admission to Grambling State University carries with it the presumption that students will conduct themselves as responsible members of the academic community. As a condition of enrollment, all students assume responsibility to observe standards of conduct that will contribute to the educational mission of the University.

The Code of Student Conduct shall be reviewed every two years by the Office of Judicial Affairs. Recommendations for revisions are to be submitted to the Vice President for Student Affairs and forwarded to the Policy Review Committee for consideration.

This will be noted when a student is "suspended for disciplinary reasons" for a specified period of time. The transcript indicates which semester the student will be eligible to return. In the case where the student is not suspended academically but is suspended for disciplinary reasons, the transcript note indicates that the student can not return until some future semester.

All system universities shall employ the notations above on student academic transcripts beginning with the Spring semester, 2007.

Notation of disciplinary action on academic transcripts may or may not affect eligibility to enroll at other higher education institutions.

Factors that will be considered include the nature of the violation, interference with the University's educational mission and the safety and welfare of other members of the University community

9. Each institution is authorized to establish policies and regulations governing student conduct. Students shall have due process in disciplinary matters, and any student who exhausted all due process procedures at the institutional level may appeal his/her grievance to the Board of Supervisors if the sanction is one of suspension from the university for a period of one academic year, or if the sanction is of greater severity. A victim of sexual assault and abuse, domestic violence, dating violence or stalking by another student is encouraged to file a written complainant and bring evidence of the incident to the Office of Student Judicial Affairs, University Police Department or the Vice President for Student Affairs. In student judicial cases, both the accused and the victim have rights which are protected throughout the judicial proceedings. Victims of sexual assault and abuse where the alleged offender is an employee of the University, have recourse through the Office of Equal Employment Opportunity and the Office of Human Resources. Sanctions

Victim's Rights Include:

- ◆ To initiate, in addition to criminal charges, disciplinary proceedings against the alleged student offender. To initiate a disciplinary proceeding, the victim must comply with the procedures promulgated in Article Five--Judicial Policies. CAVEAT: Both the accuser and the accused are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present during a disciplinary proceeding and shall be informed simultaneously in writing of the outcome of any disciplinary proceeding alleging a sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence or stalking. Recommended sanctions if found in-violation may range from expulsion, suspension, revoked suspension, campus service, and/or counseling.

whom he/she confides accompanies him/her to the infirmary or hospital.

L. STATEMENT CONCERNING SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Grambling State University explicitly condemns sexual harassment of students, staff, and faculty. Since some members of the University community hold positions of authority that may involve the legitimate exercise of power over others, it is their responsibility to be sensitive to that power. Faculty and supervisors in particular, in their relationships with students and supervisors, need to be aware of potential conflicts of interest and the possible compromise of their evaluative capacity. Because there is an inherent power difference in these relationships, the potential exists for the less powerful person to perceive a coercive element in suggestions regarding activities outside those appropriate to the professional relationship. It is, therefore, the responsibility of faculty and supervisors to behave in such a manner that their words or actions cannot reasonably be perceived as sexually coercive, abusive, or exploitive.

Sexual harassment does not refer to occasional compliments of a socially acceptable nature. It refers to behavior which is not welcomed, is unwanted, and is personally offensive and debilitating. Such behavior creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment which interferes with work effectiveness.

Such conduct, whether committed by supervisors or non-supervisory personnel, is specifically prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to, repeated offensive sexual flirtation, advances, or propositions; continued or repeated verbal abuse of a sexual nature; graphic or degrading verbal comments about an individual or his or her appearance; the display of sexually suggestive objects or pictures; or any offensive or abusive physical conduct.

In addition, no one should imply or threaten that an applicant=s or employee=s Acooperation@ of a sexual nature (or refusal thereof) will have any effect on the individual=s employment, assignment, compensation, advancement, career development, or any other condition of employment.

Grambling State University is committed to providing an environment of study and work free from sexual harassment and to insuring the accessibility of appropriate grievance procedures for addressing all complaints regarding sexual harassment. A student who believes he/she is the victim of sexual harassment by a member of the University faculty or staff should lodge a formal complaint with the Office of Equal Employment Opportunity. A student who believes that he/she is the victim of sexual harassment perpetrated by another student may file a complaint with the Office of Student Judicial Affairs.

M. HAZING POLICY

In accordance with the purpose and philosophy of the University of Louisiana Systems and the laws of the State of Louisiana, which include the belief that true fellowship can be nurtured only in an atmosphere of social and moral responsibility. Hazing is inconsistent with the responsibility of student organizations to conduct safe, constructive student development programs.

Grambling State University is committed to the development of students through academic and extracurricular activities and in keeping with its commitment to a positive academic environment, does hereby unconditionally oppose any situation created intentionally or unintentionally to produce mental, physical, psychological, or emotional discomfort as well as embarrassment, harassment or ridicule.

Participating in any form of hazing or allowing yourself to be hazed in any form is forbidden by any student(s) or organization(s) including but not limited to the Greek organizations, clubs, and athletic teams affiliated with Grambling State University. - 5. Apathy or acquiescence in the presence of hazing is not a neutral act; it is violation of this policy. @*

Participation in any pledging or membership intake process activities must not be a mandatory requirement. Additionally, organizations cannot require physical examinations or any other requisites that are not sanctioned by the national body and the institution.

Penalties for violations of the Hazing Policy shall be assessed to fit the nature and degree of the offense.

It shall be the responsibility of student organization members and pledges to report all complaints in writing concerning possible hazing violations to the Director of Student Organizations, Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs, Office of Student Judicial Affairs, or University Police Department. Cases will be handled on an individual basis.

Additionally, organizations and/or individual students found responsible for violating the Hazing Policy shall be subject to disciplinary action through the Office of Student Judicial Affairs. The prospect of a University judicial hearing does not prevent the possibility of criminal charges.

Students must obtain permission from the instructor prior to the beginning of class and must operate the phone in silent mode if extenuating circumstances require a cell phone to be on during class. The instructor may determine the consequences for violations of this policy or refer written complaints to the Office of Student Judicial Affairs.

R. CLASSROOM MISCONDUCT POLICY

1. When a student’s behavior in class is as seriously disruptive as to compel immediate action, the instructor has authority to remove a student from the class on an interim basis, pending an informal hearing addressing the behavior. A student who has been removed from a class on an interim basis is entitled to an informal hearing before the head of the department offering the course within three working days of the removal. The department head may either:

T. PARENTAL NOTIFICATION

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that permits universities to notify parents or guardians of students under 21 of alcohol and other drug violations which result in a determination that the student has committed a disciplinary violation. This exception to the privacy rights of students was enacted because of the health and safety consequences of alcohol and other drug abuse. Grambling State University is committed to the total development of each student. We believe that parents share the University's concern in such situations for their child's health, safety, and academic progress.

Therefore, Grambling State University may notify parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of any student under the age of 21 found responsible for a violation of any federal, state, and/or local law or university policy regarding alcohol and/or controlled substances or other dangerous drugs.
