

Guidelines and Policies for Students Preparing for Senior Recitals

I. MUS 411 Jury

ALL selections must be performance ready. Each student must submit three copies of MUS 411 jury evaluation form at the time of the jury. (Copies should be made ahead of time, NOT a couple of minutes before the jury)

II. Scheduling of recitals and juries

- A. Schedule dates for MUS 412 hearing and the recital in the Music Office. Two weeks prior to MUS 412 hearing, student must submit recital program to Dr. Roebuck for approval in final draft form.
- B. One week prior to MUS 412 hearing, student must submit approved recital program to Ms. Buggs for final draft.
- C. No recital can be given while the student is enrolled in ED 455: Student Teaching.
- D. No senior recitals will be scheduled or presented after week fifteen of the semester.
- E. If for any reason the student fails the MUS 412 hearing, the student may be allowed a second hearing for reschedule of the recital performance at the discretion of the jurors.
- F. The panel of jurors will consist of three music faculty members.
 - 1) At least one jury member be trained or experienced in the applied area of the student being examined,
 - 2) Persons conducting the jury recital hearing must also hear and evaluate the senior recital,
 - 3) The applied teacher will not serve as a member of his student's MUS 411 OR 412 recital juries.
- G. The request for a jury hearing will be made on a form designed for this purpose, signed by the student and his applied music teacher. The student must also provide typed, formatted copies of the recital program for all jurors at the time of the MUS 412 jury hearing.

- H. All deadlines are on a minimal time line and students are encouraged to complete all tasks related to the recital before the last possible due date.
- I. All applications, evaluations, programs and other documents must be submitted on standard Music Department forms.
- J. All senior recitals will be performed in The Performing Arts Center Recital Hall.

Attire:

- Men: Semi-formal. Solid-colored dark suit or tuxedo preferred.
- Ladies: Semi-formal. If strapless, cannot be too revealing or too tight. Subject to approval by faculty.