Mission and Overview of the MPA Program

The mission of the Master of Public Administration Program is to prepare individuals from diverse and multicultural backgrounds for administrative careers in federal, state, and local government services and other public and non-profit organizations. The MPA Program prepares its students to be critical thinkers who are capable of applying the knowledge of public administration specifically in the areas of policymaking, policy evaluation and execution with a focus on ethical conduct in public management. The Master of Public Administration Program at Grambling State University is the only accredited MPA program in north Louisiana and one of only two accredited MPA programs in the state of Louisiana.

The major objectives of the MPA Program are: (1) to provide students with the intellectual insights, professional competence, and analytical techniques that will prepare them for service in public agencies and non-profit organizations; (2) to provide in-service professionals in Louisiana and other parts of the country with the opportunity to upgrade their management skills and administrative training, thereby enhancing their possibilities for career advancement and concurrently increasing their understanding of local governance, public finance and human resource management.

The Department of Political Science and Public Administration offers the following graduate degree: Master of Public Administration (MPA) with a concentration in one of four areas:

- Public Management
- State and Local Government
- Human Resource Management
- Health Services Administration

Students who are accepted into the MPA Program must complete core courses and specialty courses in at least one area of concentration.

Admission into the MPA Program

Admission into the MPA Program is a two-fold process. First, the applicant must apply for admission to the School of Graduate Studies and Research. Those applying for admission to the School of Graduate Studies must:

- Submit a completed application for graduate admission. Applications may be obtained online at: http://www.gram.edu/gradstudies/resource.asp or you may contact the School of Graduate Studies & Research at the address and phone number below:

  School of Graduate Studies & Research
  GRAMBLING STATE UNIVERSITY
  P. O. Box 4239
  Grambling, LA 71245
• Submit a $20.00 application fee. Fee must be in the form of a money order or cashier’s check. International students must submit a $30.00 application fee.
• Hold a Bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited college or university.
• Submit official transcript(s) of ALL work completed at each college or university attended (including GSU).
• Submit three letters of recommendation (to be sent directly from the sources).
• Submit official GRE/GMAT scores. Scores must not be more than five years old.
• International Students must submit Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) scores.

The due date for submitting applications to the School of Graduate Studies and Research is as follows: Fall Semester---July 1st; Spring Semester December 1st, Summer Session---May 1st.

University regulations covering such policies as General Admission into the Graduate School, Admission to Candidacy, English Proficiency, Fees, Expenses and Refunds, Probation, Appeals, and Suspensions, Residency Requirements, Statute of Limitations, Grade Point Average and any other related area of graduate study will apply to graduate students in the MPA Program except in those areas where the Department of Political Science and Public Administration has been given jurisdiction to establish departmental-level policies.

Once accepted into the School of Graduate Studies & Research, a separate application must be completed and submitted to the Master’s of Public Administration (MPA) Program. Acceptance into the School of Graduate Studies and Research is not an automatic acceptance into the MPA Program. Similarly, the completion and submission of all application materials for the MPA Program does not guarantee acceptance. It is strongly suggested that the MPA applicant submit materials to the School of Graduate Studies & Research based upon criteria of the MPA Program from the outset. All materials should be submitted simultaneously to the School of Graduate Studies & Research, except for the “Masters of Public Administration (MPA) Application Form” and the “Statement of Purpose for Graduate School” which should be mailed directly to the Department of Political Science and Public Administration. Applicants to the MPA program must meet the following criteria:

• Acceptance in the School of Graduate Studies & Research:

• Hold a Bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited college or university in Government, Political Science, or Public Administration.
  Students who do not hold a Bachelor’s degree in one of the fields listed above may be considered for admission into the MPA Program on a “conditional basis.” Such students, if accepted, will be required to complete PA 523, “Graduate Writing Workshop”, PA 500 “Principles of Public Administration “during their initial semester of enrollment. Students must earn a “B” or above on all graduate course work.

• Have a 3.0 overall cumulative grade point average on a 4.0 scale.
  GPA is calculated on all undergraduate courses attempted and completed. Applicants must submit official copies of transcripts of all undergraduate coursework to the School of Graduate Studies and Research. Students whose overall cumulative GPA falls between 2.9 and 2.5 may be considered for admission into the MPA Program on a “conditional basis.” Such students, if accepted, will be required to limit their MPA coursework to six hours by completing PA 500 “Principles of Public Administration” and PA 523 “Graduate Writing Workshop.” Students who are admitted on a “conditional basis” because of the GPA requirement must make a “B” or above on all graduate course work. Applications will not be considered without official transcripts.

- Submit GRE (Graduate Records Examination) or GMAT (Graduate Management Admissions Test) to Grambling State University before or at the time of applying.

  The GRE or GMAT scores must not be more than five years old and must be completed before applying to the MPA program. Applicants should have a GRE score of at least 600 (combine Verbal and Qualitative). Applicants who have not taken the GRE or GMAT before applying to the MPA Program may be considered for admission into the MPA Program on a “provisional basis.” Students admitted on a provisional basis for the lack of GRE/GMAT scores must, in accordance with Graduate School policy, submit test scores within one semester or have their registration canceled without refund of fees.

- Three completed “Recommendation Forms” and three Letters of Recommendation, two of which must be from faculty members with whom the student has taken classes.

  Letters from previous faculty members must address the applicant’s intellectual ability in terms of analytical and reasoning skills, the capacity and initiative to complete graduate level work and the applicant’s communication and interpersonal skills. The third letter may be from a current or former employer, supervisor, or any other person in a professional capacity who can comment on your intellectual ability, work habits, character, and volunteer or community experience. Letters should be specific and detailed as opposed to general and vague. Letters from relatives, friends, personal acquaintances, and elementary and high school teachers will not be accepted. All letters must be typed on official letterhead and submitted, along with the Recommendation Forms, in a sealed envelope in which the signature of the Recommender is written across the flap of the envelope. Recommendation Forms and Letters must be mailed directly from the sources to the School of Graduate Studies and Research. Recommendation Forms are included in this packet. They may also be obtained from the School of Graduate Studies. Applications will not be considered without all three Recommendation Forms and Letters.

- Complete the “Masters of Public Administration (MPA) Application Form” which includes writing a “Statement of Purpose for Graduate School.”

  The MPA Application Form can be found in the “MPA Admissions Guidelines and Application Form” booklet. You may also obtain a copy from the Department of Political Science and Public Administration, 135, Woodson Hall, or by calling (318) 274-2310.

- Exhibit Intellectual Maturity and Initiative

  Graduate level work requires intellectual maturity and curiosity, emotional stability, initiative, and dependability. Students who are accepted into the MPA Program must have a desire to grow and develop as a student, scholar and practitioner in the field of Public Administration.
Admission Status

Admission into the MPA Program is very competitive and is determined by the MPA Admissions Committee after a careful review of the Application for Admission and supporting materials. Students who are accepted into the MPA Program will be admitted as a “regular degree-seeking student,” a “provisional degree-seeking student,” or a “conditional degree-seeking” student. Non-degree seeking students who have taken courses in the MPA Program may apply for admission through the admissions process outlined above. In cases where non-degree seeking students are admitted into the MPA Program, it should be noted that only twelve semester hours of non-degree graduate credit will be applied toward the MPA and only with the approval of the Advisor, the Director of the MPA Program and the Head of the Department of Political Science and Public Administration. The completion of MPA graduate courses as a non-degree seeking student does not guarantee admission into the MPA Program. The admission categories for MPA students are explained below:

Regular Admission
- Meets all requirements for Admission into the Graduate School
- Holds a Bachelors Degree in Government, Political Science or Public Administration
- Has a 3.0 overall cumulative GPA
- Has submitted scores of the GRE/GMAT
- Has submitted three appropriate Recommendation Forms with attached Letters of Recommendation
- Has submitted MPA application Form along with Statement of Purpose for Graduate School

Provisional Admission
- Meets all the requirements of Regular Admission except the submission of GRE/GMAT scores.

Conditional Admission
- Granted to students with GPA’s between 2.9 and 2.5. Coursework is limited to six specific hours (PA 505 and PA 523).
- Granted to students who do not have a Bachelor’s Degree in Government, Political Science or Public Administration. Coursework is limited to nine specific hours (PA 505, PA 523 and PA 500).

Registering for Courses

Once a student has been admitted into the MPA Program, he or she must enroll in MPA courses during the semester of admittance. Students who enroll in other courses during the semester in which they gained admittance into the MPA Program will be dismissed from the program. Likewise, students who enroll in other graduate level courses in any subsequent semester after admittance into the MPA Program and have not taken at least nine semester hours in Public Administration over a two semester period (excluding summer) will be dismissed from the program. The MPA Program views such cases as an official declination for pursuing graduate work for the MPA. Once dismissed, the student may re-apply via the regular admissions process. Under certain extenuating circumstances, an admitted student may defer enrollment by making a request for deferment in writing to the Department Head before the first day of class begins. The deferment may not extend beyond one semester. If after one deferred semester the admitted student fails to enroll in appropriate MPA courses, he or she will be dismissed from the Program.

All students who are admitted into the MPA Program must submit a Proposed Plan of Study. The Proposed Plan of Study is completed in consultation with the Advisor. Students admitted on a “Conditional Basis” must enroll in the courses outlined in their Acceptance Letter.
Failure to meet the conditions for enrollment during the initial semester of enrollment will result in disciplinary action that may include dismissal from the program. Approved Proposed Plans of Study must be submitted to the School of Graduate Studies and Research before the end of the first semester.

Statute of Limitations

In accordance with the School of Graduate Studies and Research, “students must complete the requirements for the master’s degree within six years after admission to a degree program if they are full-time. Part-time students may take up to eight years.” “Courses taken six years prior to being admitted in a graduate program, whether at Grambling State University or at another university, cannot be accepted for credit toward a degree.”

Previously Enrolled MPA Students

Students who were once admitted into the MPA Program and transferred out of the program to complete graduate work in another program must re-apply via the regular admissions process. Previous admission and completion of MPA course work does not guarantee re-admission into the Program. All previously completed course work must fall within the requisite statute of limitations.

Curriculum in the MPA Program

A minimum of 45 credit hours is required for the MPA degree, including at least 12 credit hours in an Area of Concentration, 3 elective hours and the completion of an Administrative Internship. Although it is not a requirement, a student may choose to specialize in more than one concentration area. However, each specialization requires 12 hours or 4 three-credit courses in the specialization area. If a student opts for a “dual concentration,” both concentration areas must be clearly indicated on the Proposed Plan of Study and the student must take the Comprehensive Examination in both Areas of Concentration. Once a student decides to pursue a dual concentration (i.e., declared on the Plan of Study with appropriate approvals), he or she may opt out of the dual concentration only under these circumstances: (1) after completing and submitting a “Request for Change on Plan of Study” and (2) before sitting for any portion of the Comprehensive Examination. A student may not sit for any portion of the Comprehensive Examination and then change the area of concentration or opt out of a dual concentration.

For those students who choose dual concentrations, it is important to note that “overlap” courses will count only once for any one of the two concentration areas. Overlap courses are courses that fall under two or more Areas of Concentration.

In addition to the course work, a student must pass a written Comprehensive Examination in the Core Area and in the chosen Area of Concentration. Eligibility requirements for the Comprehensive Exam are set forth in the “Policies and Procedures for the Administration and Evaluation of the Comprehensive Examination” guidelines. Students who wish to pursue doctoral level training or who wish to engage in independent, original research may also write a Master’s Thesis. A student must have an overall 3.0 GPA. MPA students must have a “B” or above in all core and concentration courses.

Graduate Assistants must be enrolled full time (a minimum of nine semester hours or graduate credit) during any semester in which they hold an assistantship. To be eligible for an assistantship, the applicant must have a minimum GPA of 3.0 on all undergraduate work and “regular admission” status. Currently enrolled graduate students are eligible for a graduate assistantship if they have an overall 3.0 GPA on all graduate coursework and have “regular admission status.” Applications for Graduate Assistantships may be obtained from the Department of Political Science or the School of Graduate Studies and Research.

Graduate Organizations

The Master of Public Administration Association (MPAA) is the main co-curricular organization for MPA students. The organization elects officers and as a group coordinates activities and events for the benefit of MPA students. A faculty member serves as the organization’s sponsor and liaison. In addition to the MPAA, the Health Services Administration Club is open to students in Health Services.
