

Mass Communication Minor

Students must complete a minimum of 9 semester hours in mass communication—MC 100, MC 225 and MC 295, and 12 hours from any one area of concentration for a total of 21 hours.

In an effort to help students improve their writing skills, students enrolled in any writing class, irrespective of their area of concentration, will be required to publish at least two articles in The Gramblinite newspaper during the semester of enrollment in the writing class.

Name: _____ Mass Communication Advisor: _____

G Number: _____ Major: _____ Semester of Graduation: _____

Minor Core Requirements

MC 100: Introduction to Mass Communication (3 hours)

Semester Taken: _____

MC 225: Mass Media Writing and Editing (3 hours)

Semester Taken: _____

MC 295: Copy Editing (3 hours)

Semester Taken: _____

Total Minor Core Requirements: 9 hours

Minor Course Electives

Students can select 12 hours from any of the following concentrations; Broadcasting Journalism, Integrated Communication, Public Relations and Sports Journalism to complete the requirements for a minor in Mass Communication. The courses cover areas ranging from theory and writing and editing to broadcasting and public relations.

Elective 1: _____ (3 hours)

Semester Taken: _____

Elective 2: _____ (3 hours)

Semester Taken: _____

Elective 3: _____ (3 hours)

Semester Taken: _____

Elective 4: _____ (3 hours)

Semester Taken: _____

Total Elective Course Hours: 12 hours

Mass Communication Minor Hours: 21 hours