Grambling University Foundation Board of Directors Call for Applications

The Nominating Committee of the Grambling University Foundation, Inc. is now accepting applications for candidates to fill open seats for four-year terms beginning July 1, 2018. New members will be appointed by the full Board of Directors at its meeting in June 2018.

The role of the Grambling University Foundation Nominating Committee is to evaluate all of the nominations received. The Nominating Committee considers many factors when evaluating a possible new member. These include the following characteristics and experience as they relate to each candidate:

- Community Involvement
- Financial Experience
- Fundraising Experience
- Media/Public Relations Experience
- Philanthropic Experience
- Governmental Involvement

The Nominating Committee also considers the following as they relate to the overall composition of the board:

- Diversity of the Board
- Regional/Geographic Representation of the Board
- Other Factors relevant to University Strategic Initiatives

The Committee seeks recommendations for candidates who are able and willing to assume the responsibilities of a board member including the following:

- Maintain knowledge of Grambling State University's mission, programs, resources, and needs.
- Prepare for and participate in all board meetings/teleconferences in order to make informed, independent, and objective decisions.
- Review and approve the Foundation's annual investment goals, operating budget, and financial statements.
- Understand that an individual board member can bind the board or Foundation only when authorized to do so and publicly support the majority decision of the board.
- Participate actively in the fundraising programs of the Foundation by providing personal financial support of the University through both the Annual Fund and any major fundraising campaign.
- Assist in the identification, cultivation, and solicitation of donors as requested and maintain confidentiality of donor information.
- Serve as an effective university spokesperson in the community.
- Serve on board committees as requested.
- Serve as a representative of the Grambling University Foundation at University events.
- Execute and update a "Conflict of Interest Statement" each year.

The deadline for receipt of applications is February 1, 2018.

Grambling University Foundation Inc. Board of Directors Application

This application constitutes an expression of interest and willingness to serve on the Grambling University Foundation Board. Completion of this application does not guarantee appointment to the Board as all members are elected by the full Board and approved by the GSU President. If you are completing this form on behalf of another individual, the Foundation staff will contact the applicant to confirm availability and willingness to serve. All applications are received and reviewed by the Chair of the Grambling University Foundation.
