

TigerTech Spotlight

Weekly News & Headlines

Greetings!!!

In today's fast-paced world, it is important to know what is going on the world of technology as it affects us all. In keeping with the University's educational mission, the GSU Information Technology Department would like to share the following news and headlines that pertain to technology.

Tech News & Headlines:

- IBM Commits to Train 2 Million AI Learners for Free by 2026
- PowerNotes Adds Tools to Assist Students' Research and Writing Process While Using AI Effectively and Responsibly
- Report Finds Students Struggling with Being Prepared for Courses and Increasingly Turning to Generative AI, Social Media to Study
- OpenAI Releases Educators' Guide for Teaching With AI
- Microsoft's AI Copilot could be coming to Windows 10, too
- DHS Launches New Critical Infrastructure Security and Resilience Campaign
- GitHub Enhances Security Capabilities With AI
- 37 Vulnerabilities Patched in Android with November 2023 Security Updates
- New MacOS Malware Linked to North Korean Hackers

We hope that you find the information provided enjoyable and informative, please feel free provide feedback and suggestions at itc@gram.edu. We appreciate your support, it takes all of us working together to make Grambling State University "Where Everybody is Somebody."

Warm regards,
Jay Ellis
CIO

Grambling State University
Information Technology Center
Jacob T Stewart Hall | Room 139
403 Main Street | Box 4220 | Grambling, LA 71245
itc@gram.edu