

2017-2022 HBCU ACTIVITIES, PART B

Strengthening Historically Black Colleges & Universities

The Title III Part B, Strengthening Historically Black Colleges and Universities Program was established by the U.S. Department of Education to strengthen and improve academic quality. Funds are used to make improvements in academic quality, student services and outcomes, institutional management, and fiscal stability, the four focus areas of Title III.

Activity Director – Peggy Hanley

Activity I – Improving Efficiency Using Technology

Activity Director – Shakira Hardison

Activity II – Strengthening the Institution through Reaffirmation: Regional & Programmatic and Development of Faculty

Activity Director – Tasha L. Heard

Activity III – Strengthening the University's Retention Office by Enhancing Programs that Foster and Improve Student Success

Activity Director – Dr. Rory L. Bedford

Activity IV – Developing an Office of Continuing Education

Activity Director – Patricia J. Hutcherson and Dr. Gavin Hamms

Activity V – Improving Self-Service to Students and Enhancing Student Success through Strategic Enrollment Management Initiatives

Activity Director – Dr. Connie Walton

Activity VI – Expanding the Research Capacity of Grambling State University

Activity Director – Valencia Williams

Activity VII – Building Institutional Capacity through the Office of Advancement

Activity Director – Valencia Williams

Activity VIII – To Expand the Endowment Base at Grambling State University

Activity Director – Shalena Johnson

Activity IX – Improving Institutional Effectiveness through Performance, Accountability and Reporting

Activity Director – Larry Green

Activity X – Strengthening University College to Improve Academic Success of Students through Orientation, Retention, Student Services, and Special Programs

Activity Director – Fredrick Carr

Activity XII – Carver Hall Renovation Project

Activity Director – Beverly Hill-Hercules

Activity XIII – Developing Effective Leaders for the 21st Century and Increasing Successful Matriculation in Higher Education through Innovative Leadership Strategies, Peer Mentoring, Community Engagement, Civic Engagement, Personal and Professional Growth

Activity Director – Beverly Hill-Hercules

Activity XIV – Project Administration