Dear Friends,

The Orchesis Dance Company needs your help!

We will represent Grambling State University at the Annual Black College Dance Exchange (BCDE) held in the BIG APPLE...New York City, April 7-10, 2011. Our trip will include dance workshops at the renowned Alvin Ailey American Dance Theatre, Broadway Dance Center and Steps on Broadway Dance Studio. When we are not dancing, we will have the opportunity to see a Broadway Show! I know that you hear the excitement in our voices as we express to you that we need your help. Please consider sponsoring us in this once in a lifetime opportunity to study dance with some of the best teachers!

Make your donation payable to: Grambling University Athletic Foundation, P.O. Box 913, Grambling, LA 71245. We are grateful for your support and pledge that we shall continue to dance our way into your hearts!

Sincerely,

The Orchesis Dance Company
