PURPOSE/OBJECTIVE

The primary mission of the Office of Student Conduct is to support the larger mission of both the University and the Division of Student Affairs. The Office of Student Conduct seeks to promote student learning, growth and development by increasing student awareness of the University’s expectation(s) of behavior and collaboratively working with other departments in an effort to create a safe, secure, and civil environment conducive to learning. Additionally, the area exists to administer a fair student disciplinary process that adheres to prescribed standards.

It is each student’s responsibility to adhere to the policies and standards of conduct prescribed by the University, the Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System, as well as those established by local, state and federal laws. The University publishes rules, regulations and policies concerning acceptable student behavior in the Code of Student Conduct.

The Code of Student Conduct creates an expectation of behavior that the Institution deems acceptable. Its primary purpose is to ensure students will not be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process.

I. STATEMENT OF POLICIES

The President, as Chief Executive Officer of the University, has the overall responsibility for the implementation of the Code of Student Conduct (Code) and the student disciplinary process and has delegated his overall management to the Vice President of Student Affairs and the Director of Student Conduct. The Director of Student Conduct is directly responsible for the daily administration of the University’s student judicial system. Code Authority is found in Louisiana Revised Statutes, Acts, Concurrent Resolutions, etc. as the following:

Title 1, OF THE DISTINCTION OF PERSONS, Act 37, Age of Majority (1972). Student
Due Process No. 464 (2022)

The Code of Student Conduct creates an expectation of behavior that the University deems acceptable. Its primary purpose is to ensure that students will not be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process. Although every student has rights guaranteed by the U.S. Constitution, these freedoms cannot be enjoyed, exercised, or protected in a community which lacks order and stability. It is, therefore, each student’s responsibility to adhere to the conduct and standards prescribed by the University, the Board of Trustees for the University of Louisiana System, as well as those established by local, state and federal laws.

Admission to Grambling State University carries with it the presumption that students will conduct themselves as responsible members of the academic community. As a condition of enrollment, all students assume responsibility to observe standards of conduct that will contribute to the educational mission of the University.

The Code of Student Conduct shall be reviewed every two years by the Office of Student Conduct.
Recommendations for revisions are to be submitted to the Vice President of Student Affairs and forwarded to the Policy Review Committee for consideration.

fully participate during any disciplinary proceeding or other procedure adopted and used by the affected institution to address an alleged violation of the institution’s non-academic rules or policies. This right applies to both the student who has been accused of the violation and to the student who is the alleged victim, if applicable. Prior to scheduling a disciplinary proceeding, the institution is required to inform the students in writing of their rights provided by this section.

Any student organization officially recognized by an institution under the jurisdiction of the management board has the right to be represented, at the organization’s expense, by an attorney or a non-attorney advocate who may fully participate during any disciplinary proceeding or during any other procedure adopted and used by the institution to address an alleged violation of the institution’s non-academic rules or policies. This right applies to both the student organization that has been accused of the alleged violation and the alleged victim, if applicable.

A student or student organization subject to a charge or disciplinary proceeding by the institution is entitled, upon receiving notice of the charge, to notice of any and all violations of the institution’s non-academic rules or policies and the disciplinary proceedings or charges that will occur as a result. This notice shall include but need not be limited to each and every section of the institution’s rules or policies that the student or student organization is alleged to have violated and any evidence the institution used and collected in making the charge.

When a violation is punishable by suspension of ten (10) or more days or expulsion, or when violation by a student organization is punishable by suspension or removal of the organization from the institution, the disciplinary procedures contained in the code of student conduct shall include but need not be limited to the following:

1. Afford the accused student or organization the express presumption of innocence and set forth that he or the organization may not be deemed guilty of the violation until he/she or the organization formally acknowledges responsibility or conclusion of a hearing where the institution has established every element of the alleged violation.

2. Require the institution to maintain an administrative file of disciplinary proceedings. The file shall include all documents and evidence in the institution’s possession or control relevant to the alleged violation and the institution’s investigation including but not limited to exculpatory evidence, documents submitted by any participant, and the institution’s choice of a video recording, audio recording, or transcript of any disciplinary hearing ultimately held in the matter. The file shall not include privileged document or internal memorandums that the institution does not intend to introduce as evidence at any hearing on the matter.

3. Provide both the accused student or organization and the alleged victim reasonable continuing access to the administrative file and the ability to make copies of all evidence or documents in the file beginning at least seven (7) business days prior to any disciplinary hearing, or sooner if otherwise specified under federal law, except that individual portions of the administrative file shall be redacted if disclosure of the evidence is required by law.

4. Ensure that all disciplinary proceedings are carried out free from conflicts of interest by ensuring that there is no commingling of administrative or adjudicative roles. For purposes of this paragraph, an institution shall be considered to commingle such roles if any individual carries out more than one of the following roles with respect to any disciplinary proceeding:

a. Victim counselor and victim advocate
b. Investigator
c. Institutional prosecutor
d. Adjudicator
e. Appellate adjudicator

2. Appeals

Any student or student organization that is found to be in violation of the institution’s non-academic rules or policies shall be afforded an opportunity to appeal the institution’s initial decision to an appellate entity that is an institutional administrator or body that did not make the initial decision. Such an appeal shall be filed within ten (10) days after receiving final notice of the institution’s decision. The right to appeal the result of the institution’s disciplinary proceeding also applies to the student who is the alleged victim, if applicable. The institution may designate the appellate entity as the final institutional authority on the matter; however, nothing in this Section shall preclude a court from granting a prevailing plaintiff equitable relief.

In the appeals process, the student or student organization has the right to be represented, at the student’s or the organization’s expense, by the student’s or the organization’s attorney or non-attorney advocate.

Issues that may be raised on appeal include new evidence, contradictory evidence, and evidence that the student or student organization was not afforded due process. The institutional body considering the appeal may consider police reports, transcripts, and the outcome of any civil or criminal proceeding directly related to the appeal. Upon consideration of the evidence, the institutional body considering the appeal may grant the appeal, deny the appeal, order a new hearing, or reduce or modify the punishment. If the appeal results in the reversal of the decision or a lessening of the sanction, the institution shall reimburse the student for any tuition and fees paid for the period of suspension, including a deferred suspension, or expulsion which had not been previously refunded, if applicable.

UL System member institutions are not required to use formal rules of evidence in disciplinary proceedings. However, they shall make good faith efforts to include relevant evidence and exclude evidence which is neither relevant nor probative.

Institutions are obligated to provide equivalent rights to a student who is the alleged victim in the disciplinary proceeding, including equivalent opportunities to have others present during an institutional disciplinary proceeding, to an unrestricted choice of attorney or non-attorney advocate in any meeting or institutional disciplinary proceeding, if applicable.

3. Interim Measures

UL System member institutions shall have the ability to take reasonable interim measures necessary to ensure the physical safety of members of its campus communities during a timely investigation and adjudication of a student disciplinary issue including but not limited to the ability to make adjustments in student housing arrangements, impose conditions of mutual no-contact between the accused student and the alleged victim, temporarily suspend a student, or ban a student from campus. Such reasonable interim measures shall require the following:

a. Within seventy-two (72) hours of the alleged violation being deemed an immediate threat, written notice of the interim measure that explains the institution’s reasons for enacting the measures.

b. Within seven (7) business days of the written notice as outlined in the above paragraph, unless otherwise waived by the accused student, an interim measure hearing to determine whether there is substantial evidence that the student poses a risk to the physical safety of a member of the campus community and that the interim measure is appropriate to mitigate that risk. At the hearing, both the accused student and the alleged victim shall have the right to be represented, at the student’s expense, by an attorney or a non-attorney advocate who may fully participate during the hearing. An accused student’s waiver of the right to an interim measure hearing shall not constitute an admission of guilt or a waiver of any additional rights provided for in this section.

O. ZERO TOLERANCE FOR AGGRESSIVE BEHAVIOR POLICY

Grambling State University has a “Zero Tolerance” policy for Aggressive Behavior. The purpose of this policy is to address incidents of unacceptable behavior which create fear, bodily harm to another, or damage to property.

Aggressive Behavior is defined as intimidating gestures, threatening, abusive language, fighting or physical actions which create fear, intent of bodily harm, bodily harm to another person or damage to university or personal property.

Additional definitions of aggressive behavior may be identified in the student handbook, which may include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Assault
2. Battery
3. Dangerous, Threatening Unsafe Behavior
4. Destruction/Damage to Property

Any student found in-violation of an aggressive behavior act may result in immediate suspension up to expulsion from the University. The University has jurisdiction over all behavioral infractions which occur in university facilities or on university property. University charges and criminal charges are independent of each other.

P. ELECTRONIC DEVICES POLICY

The use of any unauthorized electronic device including, but not limited to, cell phones, pagers, iPods, MP3 players, etc., during official classroom instruction, University assembly periods, and official University testing administration sites are strictly prohibited. Students entering a classroom or testing site must turn off and store their phones prior to entering the room. Cell phones are not allowed on desks or tabletops. Students must obtain permission from the instructor prior to the beginning of class and must operate the phone in silent mode if extenuating circumstances require a cell phone to be on during class. The instructor may determine the consequences for violations of this policy or refer written complaints to the Office of Student Conduct.
Q. CLASSROOM MISCONDUCT POLICY

1. When a student’s behavior in class is as seriously disruptive as to compel immediate action, the instructor has authority to remove a student from the class on an interim basis, pending an informal hearing addressing the behavior. A student who has been removed from a class on an interim basis is entitled to an informal hearing before the head of the department offering the course within three (3) working days of the removal. The department head may either:

   a. Approve an agreement of expectations between the student and the instructor and reinstate the student to the class; or

   b. Extend the removal of the student from the class and refer the case to the Office of Student Conduct for adjudication. (A copy of all material shall be forwarded to the instructor’s academic dean, the student’s academic dean and to the Office of Student Conduct.)

2. When a student’s action is not as serious as to require immediate removal from the class, the following steps shall be followed:

   a. The instructor for the class shall inform the student that his/her behavior has been inappropriate;

3. The instructor shall describe to the student specific needed changes in the student’s behavior;

4. The student will be provided an opportunity to modify his/her behavior in accordance with the changes identified in writing, inclusive of a summary of his/her discussion with the student, and the instructor will retain a file copy of the summary;

5. If a student believes an instructor’s expectations are unreasonable, he/she may confer with the instructor’s department head about the matter. The department head may choose to support the guidelines developed by the instructor, or he or she may work with the instructor to develop a modified set of expectations. If there are changes in the instructor’s original set of expectations, a signed and dated copy will be provided by the department head to both the student and the instructor; and

6. If a student’s behavior continues to be unacceptable, the department head may initiate additional discussion with the instructor and/or the student. If the department head concurs with the instructor’s view that the problem has not been resolved, the situation may be referred to the Office of Student Conduct. A memorandum describing the student’s behavior, as well as a copy of the written summary and any other related material shall be forwarded to the Office of Student Conduct. (A copy of all material shall be forwarded to the instructor’s academic dean, student’s academic dean and the Office of Student Conduct.)

R. DRESS CODE POLICY

Grambling State University, a community of leaders preparing students to compete as well as succeed in their chosen careers, still maintains the traditional notion of acceptable dress attire. The personal appearance of every university student is an important component of maintaining a student-centered learning environment. In order to achieve the total educational process an appropriate dress code which promotes a positive image of the university must be presented at all times. Students are expected to dress in a manner supportive of a positive learning environment, free from disruptions and distractions.

The following standards shall apply and will be enforced:

Examples of inappropriate attire include but are not limited to:

a. Wearing hats, caps, do-rags, skullcaps, bandanas, stocking caps and/or other headgear;

b. Lounging shoes, lounging slippers, bare feet, short-shorts, sagging pants (exposing undergarments), lounging pants (except in the privacy of the student’s living quarters)

This policy does not apply to headgear identified as religious or cultural dress. Students seeking approval for headgear attire shall make a written request through the Office of the Vice President of Student Affairs.

Students must adhere to any special dress standard set by groups presenting social programs such as musical arts, convocations, commencement, etc. Admission to such events may be denied if manner of dress is inappropriate.

Appropriate student behavior addressing the dress code policy shall be monitored by university faculty and staff.

S. PARENTAL NOTIFICATION

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that permits universities to notify parents or guardians of students under 21 years of age of alcohol and other drug violations which result in a determination that the student has committed a disciplinary violation. This exception to the privacy rights of students was enacted because of the health and safety consequences of alcohol and other drug abuse. Grambling State University is committed to the total development of each student. We believe that parents share the University’s concern in such situations for their child’s health, safety, and academic progress.

Therefore, Grambling State University may notify parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of any student under the age of 21 found responsible for a violation of any federal, state, and/or local law or university policy regarding alcohol and/or controlled substances or other dangerous drugs.
